Sithrah

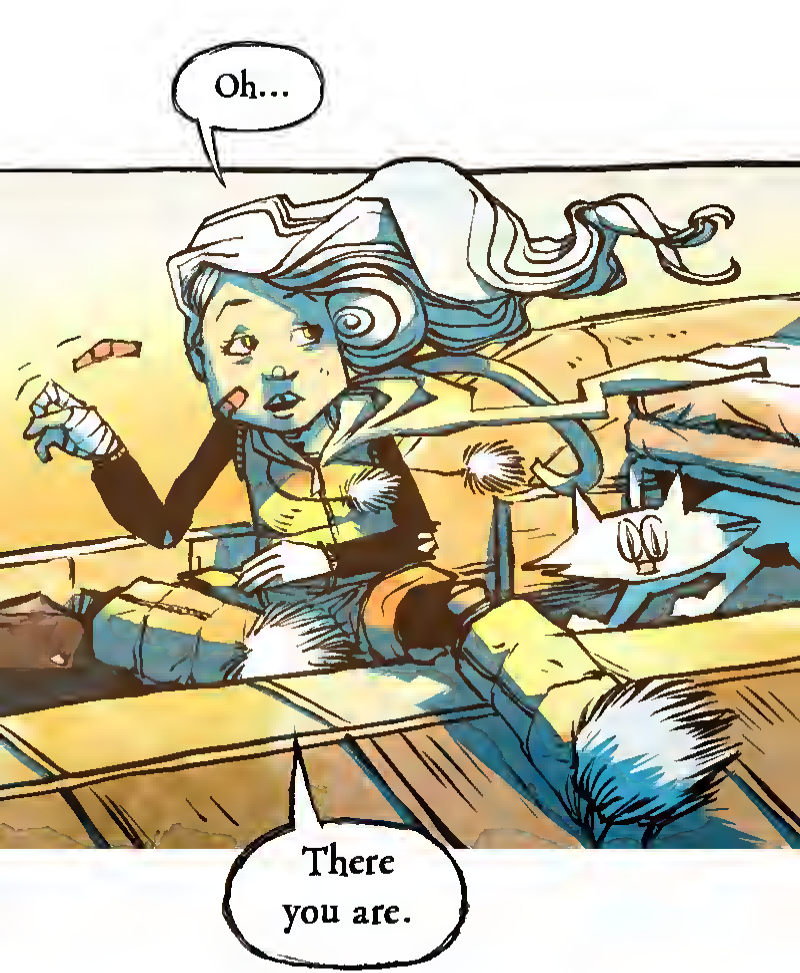
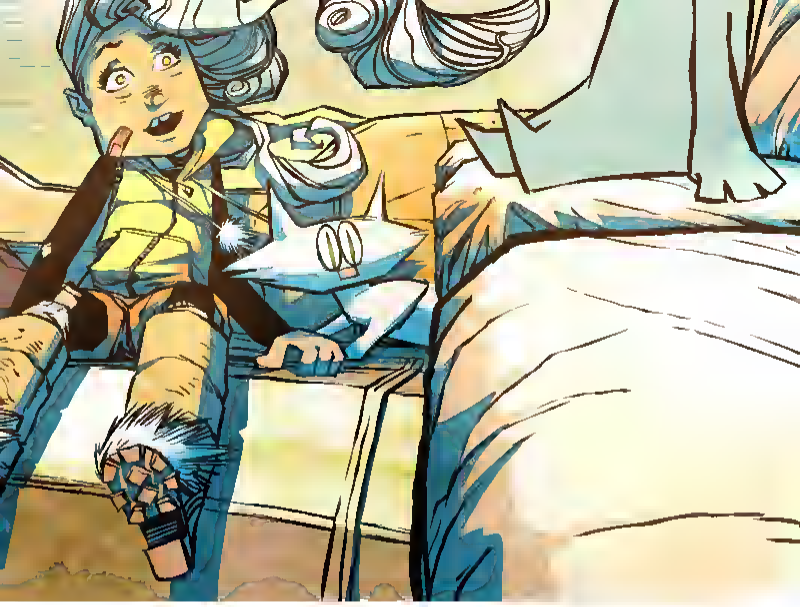
You need to get that treated.



Oh...
There you are.

I didn't know where you were.
I know.
It was crazy, there was a big school of weebles that exploded out of the sand.
I know.

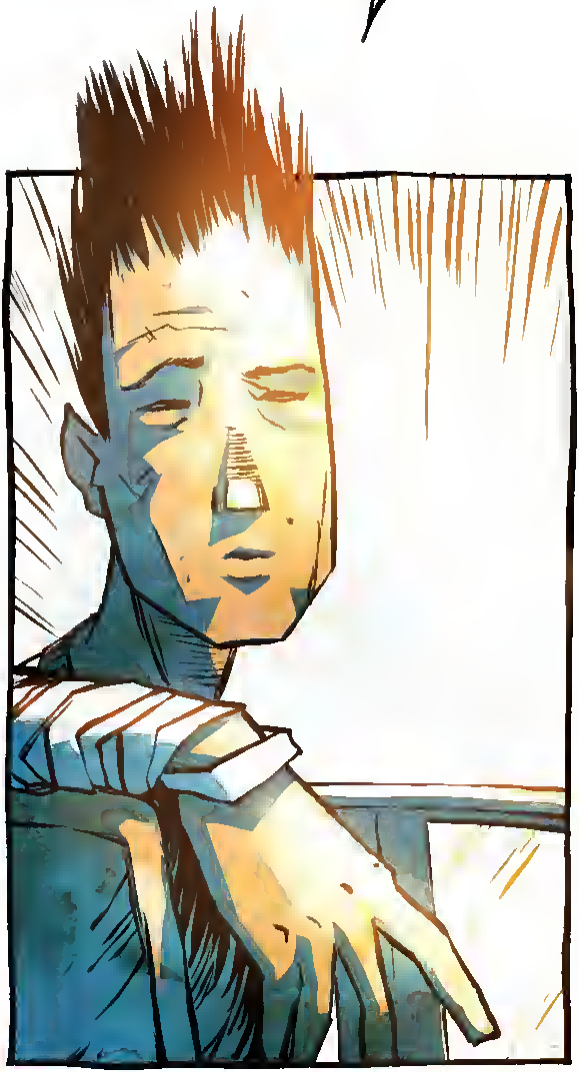


Are you talking to Sithrah?

Yeah.

Don't you need to watch where you're going?

Autopilot.
Just keep cool and I'll make sure we get across safely!
But can you thank Sithrah for helping us back there?



He can hear you.
Just tell him yourself.

Thanks for what you did back there, Sithrah.
You are welcome-
If I ask him something, can you tell me what he says?
I guess.
Why do some people get a Sithrah and others don't?

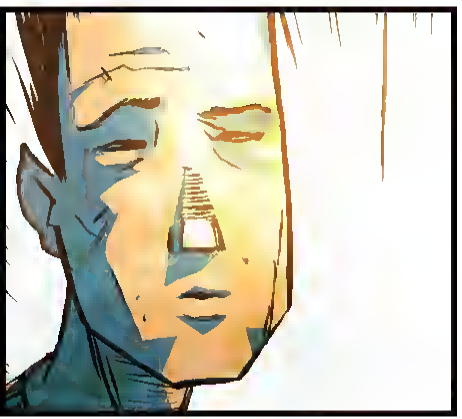
Tell him you get what you choose.
What does that mean?
What's he saying?
He said 'You get what you lose.'
Choose!
Choose. You get what you choose.

Well then, I want a
Sithrah, too!
So where's mine?

Your life has always been full of evidence but you continue to resist it.

What?

What's he saying?



Something about life
being full of evidence.

What does that mean?

I have no idea.
I don't think he feels comfortable
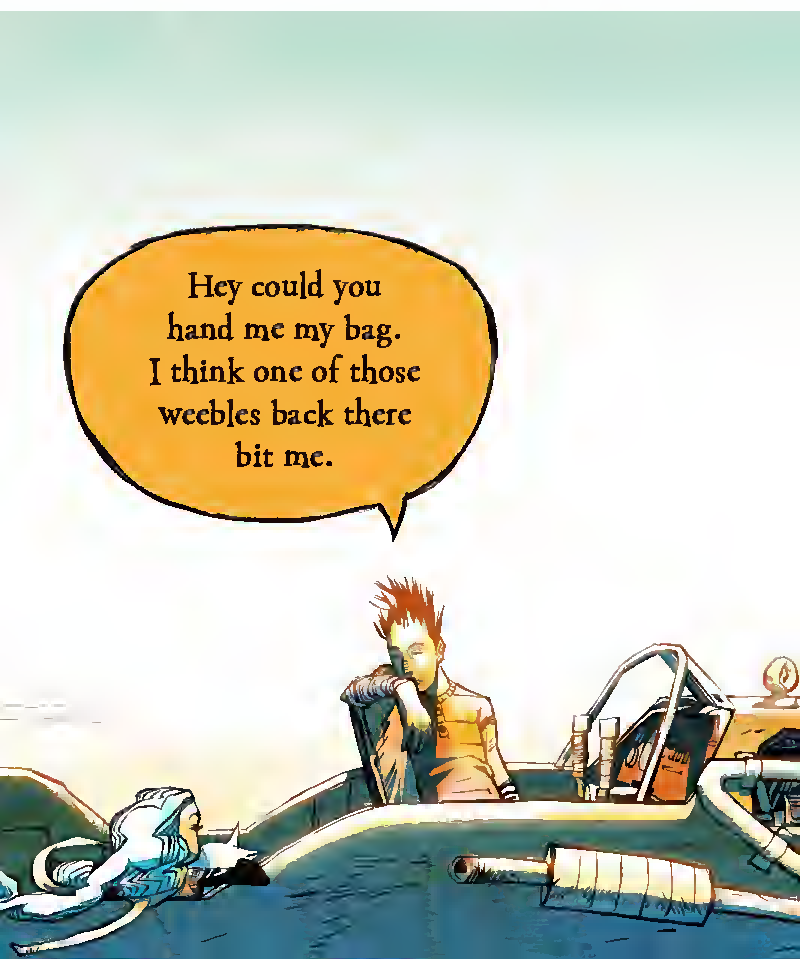
answering too many questions.

Nevermind then.



Hey could you hand me my bag. I think one of those weebles back there bit me.
